

Brando Walker and Mina Unveil Dynamic New Single “Broken Boy (Brando Walker Remix)”

Dropping on All Platforms October 18th

London, UK – October 8th, 2024 – Get ready to feel the energy as UK-based DJ/producer Brando Walker and soulful Swiss singer Mina join forces on their exciting new single, “Broken Boy (Brando Walker Remix),” set to drop on October 18th across all major streaming platforms.

This remix breathes fresh life into Mina’s unreleased original, delivering an infectious, high-octane twist that merges Brando’s vibrant Dance-Pop production with Mina’s hypnotic, jazz-tinged vocals. Known for fusing retro 70s and 80s Dance vibes with a modern Chicago House flavor, Brando transforms “Broken Boy” into a pulsating club hit designed to dominate playlists and pack dance floors.

Brando Walker has been shaking up the UK music scene since launching his solo career in 2021. With a background producing for stars like Pixie Lott, Brando’s own music has grabbed attention from top tastemakers like Sarah Gosling (BBC Introducing, XFM) and Tom Robinson (BBC 6 Music). His standout debut year saw him headline the BBC Introducing Stage at Boardmasters, amassing over 100,000 streams and growing his Spotify following to more than 10,000 monthly listeners. His hit track “John Travolta” racked up nearly half a million streams, solidifying Brando’s status as a fast-rising force in the world of Dance music.

Mina, who hails from Switzerland, became a fixture in London’s live music scene, where she brought her unique blend of Jazz, Soul, and RnB to venues like Proud Camden and Bush Hall. During the pandemic she decided to completely devote herself to her original music. Under the mentorship of pianist Nathan Britton and Devonshire producer Brando Walker, Mina has refined her sound over the past two years, releasing original music that has garnered close to 10,000 streams as an independent artist. With releases like “Don’t Hold On”, “The One That Got Away”, and her striking cover of Britney Spears’ “Lucky,” Mina’s influence is rapidly expanding. As an independent artist she achieved almost 10K plays on Spotify and garnered support from media outlets such as Amazing Radio UK/US, other EU radio stations and content creators across the world which boosted her presence.

“Broken Boy (Brando Walker Remix)” represents a thrilling collaboration between two exciting rising talents. Mina’s raw, emotional depth is amplified by Brando’s high-energy, cutting-edge production, creating a track that’s primed to take over clubs, playlists, and airwaves alike.

As Brando Walker sets out to make 2024 his biggest year yet and Mina continues to build her international presence, “Broken Boy (Brando Walker Remix)” marks the start of something big for this powerhouse duo.
